- All classes are expected to give a final or have a final summative project or presentation. Finals are expected to be proctored during the finals schedule.
- In order to maintain a quiet testing environment during reviews and exams, students must remain in the class for the FULL period.
- Students only need to be present when they are taking exams. For example, students do not need to be at school during make-up periods
- Students will have an open campus for lunch on these three days of finals.
