"Little explorers" focuses on a classroom setting where the students will "explore" the areas of stories, art, music, fine motor skills and body movements. Children will have the opportunity to develop great social skills and independence while having fun.

Class instructors will be Diana Karls and Heidi Endres along with various teachers and students from Lodi High School.

Join us for this unique collaboration with Lodi High School staff and students to give your child a wonderful first time experience of learning! A typical class will be structure with a weekly theme to include story-time, high school "special" collaboration time, snack, art, PE and imagination/playtime. Weekly themes will be sent out once you have registered for the class.

Pick up and drop off will be in the pool lobby

Please make sure to enter the building through the pool lobby doors only.
