

School District of Lodi
Complaints about Instructional Materials

No. 871
(A) 1-11-93
(R) 10-10-94
(R) 12-14-15

The Board recognizes that differences of opinion exist in a democracy, therefore, realizes that the suitability of particular instructional materials used in the schools may be questioned from time to time.

When citizens have concerns about particular instructional materials, these concerns should be presented to the building principal in accordance with established procedures. If a citizen is not satisfied with the administrative decision regarding the instructional materials in question, he/she may submit the concern to the Board for consideration.

The School District shall not discriminate in the selection and evaluation of instructional and library materials on the basis of sex, race, religion, national origin, ancestry, creed, pregnancy, marital or parental status, sexual orientation or physical, cognitive, emotional or learning disability or handicap.
